WORK CONDITIONS

Work conditions vary by shift. The majority of tasks are performed outside while working from a police cruiser. Few tasks require heavy lifting, pushing, pulling, or carrying heavy loads. Flexibility is important because of the need to enter and exit vehicles frequently, inspect buildings, climb over and around obstacles, suddenly move out of the way of dangers, etc.. Mental alertness is very important because of the need to make very fine discriminations and decisions concerning subtle cues of impending danger or to discover inconsistencies in witnesses' or suspects' testimonies, etc.. Physical and mental demands may change dramatically within a few seconds and tax the maximum of human endurance. Therefore, incumbents must maintain a physical and mental state of readiness that will enable to handle (with minimal force and often without backup) recurrent contacts and involvement's with dangerous and potentially dangerous people, animals and equipment.
